Hand in hand like guns and Bibles
War for peace seems a contradiction
What is right and wrong?
What is fact and fiction?

Sister's and brother's
Isn't that the story?
To love one another
I've heard that's how it goes
To live and let live
Isn't that what you say?
A little love goes a long, long way

Step by step we can get there
Step by step we can get to the other side
Step by step we can get there
Step by step we can get there

Hand in hand like guns and Bibles
Love and Hate seems to have condition
What is truth and lies
What's a sin without contrition

Who throws the first stone
If everyone's a sinner?
We reap what we've sown
Who should judge?
To live and let live
Isn't that what you say?
A little love goes a long, long, way

Step by step we can get there
Oh, step by step we can get to the other side
Step by we can get there
Oh, step by step, step by step

Everybody's got a way to justify
What is true and what's a lie
Everybody's got a way to save the world
But nothing ever changes
Though nothing stays the same

It's so easy to point a finger
But nobody ever wants to take the blame

So who throws the first stone
If everyone's a sinner?
If we reap what we've sown
Who should judge?
To live and let live
Isn't that what you say?
A little love goes a long, long, long, long way

Step by step we can get there
Oh, step by step
Step by step we can get there
Oh, it's not so far, it's not so far
Step by step we can get there
Oh, step by step we can get to the other side
Step by step we can get there
Oh, step by step, step by step
