"It takes a little shake, up from the rift
It takes a bit of wind to get you to lift
It takes sandstorms and signs from God

It takes a piece of grass, floating on a breeze
It takes a plastic bag, stuck up in a tree
It takes cold fronts and sackcloth skies

It takes leviathans, down in the abyss
The hidden messages of the things that you missed
It takes mouthfuls of Niagara Falls

It takes a little shake, up from the rift
It takes a bit of wind up from the rift
It takes sandstorms and signs from God"
