Cross the rows of palm trees blows
The wind that blew my heart away
Rusty waves try in vain to catch
The wind that blew my heart away

Turn this plane around right now
'Cause I'm done with all this shit
Save yourself, save yourself
'Cause I'm sinking with this ship

Cross the waves of static fading plays
The sound that stole my heart away
Satellites have all been down back
The wind that blew my heart away

My heart away
My heart away
My heart away
