Sha la la la la la
Sha la la la la la

When your best girl says she loves you
When your hair looks like it should
When you make the highschool football team Like you thought you would
When your country wins the arms race
When your hair looks like it should
You've got to say that that's OK
That's any good!
Does the dew light on the heather
Is your gym class really keen
Do the Chelsea girls in homeroom
Say you look like Martin Sheen
Does the common market thrill you Would you like a bowl of pud if the answer's yes, we must confess
That's any good
That's any good

{spoken} Girl, when you left me, well, that was a big drag. But now, thanks in part to Ronco
Products, I'm much better. And that's any good!

Girl, before I met you my heart was made of wood
My tantrum in Southampton was all misunderstood But now that's all behind me, I'm the little train that could
And I've got to say (sha la la la la la la)
That that's OK (teenagers in love)
Yeah, that's any good
