Orbiting Rondelle

(Dave on lead)

You will go to the moon

You'll probably be heading there soon

Someday flowers will grow there

But first you've got to go there

Oh, You will go to the moon

(ooo, you gonna get it)

You will live in the stars

Your backyard will probably be Mars

You will ride a crater scooter

And eat off your computer

Oh you will live in the stars

(All)

Your stellar smile will always beam

Knowing you're home and home to stay

And you'll look down upon the earth

And say, "I can't believe we ever lived that way!"

(Dave)

You will go to the moon

There's plans for a hotel and a lagoon

You'll be savoring a star fruit

And kicking off your moonboot

Oh you will go to the moon.

Hey, you will go to the moon

A paradise to rival Cancun

And one side's always sunny

You'll be raking in the money

Oh you get paid on the moon

(All)

It's been our most abiding dream

And a dream is an easy sell

And when the tourists come in droves

You'll be the big cheese on that orbiting rondelle

(Dave)

You will go to the moon

Daring pioneers will call the tune

(vocal solo)

(Dave)

Take it home...

Ah someday flowers will grow there

But first you got to go there

Oh you will go to the moon

I'm gonna tell ya, you will go to the moon

One more! You will go to the moon!
