Put a bug into my ear, when I woke up I was here
I blew smoke onto a page and watched the letters re-arrange
Pushed the words into my veins, tripped the valve inside my brain
Spoke a language I could see, I swam inside reality

Write in vines and speak in tongues
Double meanings in my lungs
Brazen head spits out the skies
These words are heavy but I'm alright

The tangled web inside my head changed the canvas as it spread
Concepts mushroomed as I talked, notion opened as I walked,
Chemistry is just a word we use to describe what occurs
When subtle changes in our mind make energy from common lives

Write in vines and speak in tongues
Double meanings in my lungs
Brazen head spits out the skies
These words are heavy but I'm alright

Things move everywhere, I look
I'm stuck in someone else's book
Letter perfect engineer
Then it all just disappears

Alright

Write in vines and speak in tongues
Double meanings in my lungs
Brazen head spits out the skies
These words are heavy but I'm alright

All of my words becoming one
All the changes were undone
I'm a strange loop, that is clear
Put a bug in my ear
