Everyone got reason
To why your so blind
I covered your back again
And you better cover mine

If I turned and walked away
Would you stick your knives in me?
How much longer till you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you

Everyone got reason
To why you're so unkind
And I believe it's true
You know I'm leavin' you
Oh..

If I turned and walked away
Would you stick your knives in me?
How much longer till you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you
Oh...
Walk away..

If I turned and walked away
Would you stick your knives in me?
How much longer till you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you

If I turned and walked away
Would you stick your knives in me?
How much longer till you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you
