"Evoke The Curse"

calling upon my evil spell mesmerized by witches of hell surrounded by the wicked curse taken over by demonic force terrorized

by the sacred curse
try to escape
but I'll never let go!

over powering your worthless mind blackened spirits wither away in time never break the oath feel the sorrow of my mystic ways from the dark i obtain your soul surrender down to the monarch of hell praying on your knees your plead for help will get you nowhere now

by the sacred curse
try to escape
but I'll never let go!

evoking the curse with power and force this spiritual demon shows no remorse this blasphemous witch casting a spell diving my mind strait to hell unleashing the power burning your soul trapped in a daze your under control eternally black you'll never live free mysterious evil is now what you see evoke!!! the!!! curse!!!
