evil has taken control accepting its morbid ways possessed to deceive your mind descending from the powers of hell listen to the sounds of pain the horrid voices of the damned feel the fire burn inside visions of a horrifying world plunging!

your weak and vulnerable soul
into darkness!
evil takes control

deliverance!
evil spirits await screams from below as the dark side calls evil eye ripping through your soul rulers of the depths arise turning towards a shadowy grim dark minds pullet you from within commands from the ruler of hate summon the forces of darkness damnation through the portals of hell forever in endless pain!

your weak and vulnerable soul
into darkness!

evil has captured your soul hate and despites all you know
evil has captured your soul
by plunging into darkness!!!
