Often I dream about
You and I wishful thoughts of a love that's so pure
Take us in a world afar
All I am because of you
No one else could be this true and I wish
I'll never wake up from this dream

Could it be that I see
The future that's you and me
What if you just maybe share the same thoughts I see
Meet me there and just dream away with me

Make believe you are here
Freeze the time when you are near Wish that life be this way everyday and so I say
That my dreams will be fulfilled
All the mysteries revealed and I wish
I never wake up from this dream

You and I wishful thoughts of a love that's so pure
Take us in a world afar
All I am because of you
No one else could be this true and I wish
I'll never wake up from this dream

Could it be that I see
The future that's you and me
What if you just maybe share the same thoughts I see
Meet me there and just dream away with me

Take my hand believe my love will stand the test of time
Tomorrow's yours and mine so dream...

You and I wishful thoughts of a love that's so pure
Take us in a world afar
All I am because of you
No one else could be this true and I wish
I'll never wake up from this dream

Could it be that I see

The future that's you and me
What if you just maybe share the same thoughts I see
Meet me there and just dream away
Just dream away with me
Dream away with me
Dream away...
