Summer after high-school when we first met
We'd make out in my Mustang to Radiohead
And on your 18th birthday we got matching tattoos
Used to steal your parent's liquor and climb to the roof
Talk about our future like we had a clue
Never planned that one day I'd be losing you

In another life you would be my girl
We'd keep all our promises, be us against the world
In another life I would make you stay
So I don't have to say you were the one that got away
The one that got away.

You were June and I was your Johnny Cash
Never one without the other we made a pact
Sometimes when I miss you I put those records on... on Someone said you had your tattoo removed
Saw you downtown singing the blues
It's time to face the music I'm no longer your muse

But in another life you would be my girl
We'd keep all our promises, be us against the world
In another life I would make you stay
So I don't have to say you were the one that got away
The one that got away.

The one, the one, the one
The one that got away.

All this money can't buy me a time-machine, no
I can't replace you with a million rings, no
I shoulda told you what you meant to me, ooh
Cause now I pay the price.

In another life you would be my girl
We'd keep all our promises, be us against the world
In another life I would make you stay
So I don't have to say you were the one that got away
The one that got away.

The one, the one, the one

The one that got away.
The one, the one, the one
The one that got away.
