Think you are alone
you have never been more wrong
this affliction
kills a piece of us all
drowning inside out
swallow fatal frame
don't hold your breath
i swear, you will breathe again
this is a promise
all i have in my heart
strength for both of us
pull you from the shadows this blight wont take your life scour the rust from your veins i feel your pain shedding mortal remains put your mind at ease you aren't on your own with you all the way
fight this together
to a fallen friend

if you are lost
i swear, we will meet again
think you are alone
you've never been more wrong
