Verse 1:

Into my bedroom
And you'll find all that you can
You can soak all of me in
You're in the walls and under my pillow
You're in the smoke that I breathe

Verse 2:

Pick up my notebook
Read all I wrote
Soon you might understand me
Look through a page and see
All of the words that blink
And you might finally see me

Chorus:

Only you love me
Only you hate me
Only you show me myself
Only you tense me
Only you hit me
How could I turn on myself

*Note: This is not the whole song. These are just a few of the lyrics that I got from the song clip. No cd or songs were released yet.
