A beautiful dream has shown me
Clouds have the answers to my pain
Â'cause I have no rights to take you back to me, my
dear
but how good it would be to touch your hands
somedayÂ...

I knocked on the door of a lie too many times
What is the meaning of this lifeÂ...
Explain me how can I replace the rationalities in me
Will you be there when I wake up?
I need you nowÂ...

IÂ'd like to collect our photos in my diary full of emptiness
You live under holy water drops
And IÂ'd wish to record my music into your head and together dance
So that it could lead you close to me somedayÂ...

I knocked on the door of a lie too many times

What is the meaning of this lifeÂ...
Explain me how can I replace the rationalities in me
Will you be there to wake me up?
I need you nowÂ...

A beautiful dream has shown me
Over the clouds there is no rain
ThereÂ's something between you and my purple sky, I see it every night
But maybe I will stop to dream the same somedayÂ...

I knocked on the door of a lie too many times
What is the meaning of this lifeÂ...
Explain me how can I replace the rationalities in me
To open my wings and fly to you
I need you nowÂ...
I need you nowÂ...
I need you nowÂ...
