Let me fly and shout so loud so that my voice can fill this room
'cause it would be a way to tell you what obliged me to choose
Just like a flower wearing new colours when the spring is coming back
I move to new dimensions where I put the pain away

Why? She stands in front of me
Why? She can't afford me
Tries to penetrate me
and digs into my life
Why? She stands in front of me... I'm not alone!

I play the strings of passion everytime that I stay with you

Discovering details in my world through the eyes of the moon
And every single moment takes me nearer to my dreams
But sometimes I feel lost within the jungle of my memories

Why? She stands in front of me
Why? She can't afford me
Tries to penetrate me
and digs into my life
Why? She stands in front of me... I'm not alone! Yeah...!

Here I'm not alone...
