Who's gonna keep me warm at night when your gone?
Who's gonna hold me tight and sing me silly songs?
I want to run and hide, but I have to be strong.
Cuz it's tearing me up inside that your leaving for so long.

I really miss you [x3]
I really wanna kiss you [x3]
Like the first time.
I really miss you [x3]
I really wanna kiss you [x3]
But your gone right now and I'm not there.

You call me late at night on the phone.
You whisper sweet I love yous and say that you miss me so.
Try to contain myself but then I lose control.
You say, "Baby it's just 30 days and then I'm comin'
back home."

I really miss you [x3]
I really wanna kiss you [x3]
Like the first time.
I really miss you [x3]
I really wanna kiss you [x3]
But your gone right now and I'm not there.
