Drove past your house today and I wondered if you were there.
Are you listenin' to your record collection?
Or maybe fixin' your hair?
Maybe watchin' some television, maybe some Degrassi High?
Wonder what you're doin' now, you're such an interesting guy.
Maybe you're not even there at all.
Maybe I should just give you a call.
And we can go somewhere, and talk.
Maybe a bar? Maybe not?
We could drive around, sing' out loud.
Just as long as we're together that's all that really counts.
