Sink into a world of see-thru cold
Separate your heart and head and
Summer's just a stone's throw away
Tell yourself you'll never be that old
Holding hands I look at you and say
Summer's 2 weeks away!
Will you be my friend again girl?
Run on the beach and feel so pretty
Will you be my friend again yeah?
Da da da
Lavender and salty sand
Us walking hand in hand
No sex no wedding band
Just the sea and the land
Da da da
Soon the leaves will change and dry and fall
Winter isn't far away at all
It's a stone's throw away
