Slow down and catch your breath.
I didn't hear the last word that you said.
We were all waiting for answers.
But your justice has become poison and it's lulling us to sleep.
So we fall closer to everything that we hate.
We fall closer to everything that we hate.
Leaving us gasping for air, you steal our hearts and make them yours, we fall.
Slow down, breathe in.
Inhale, exhale.
And you can say that this is what you wanted.
Slow down, breath in.
Inhale, exhale.
