Sitting, everything comes at me at once
I can't see beyond me Blinded, by my own antiquary, as for me, I could care less

Feeling like I don't need You, I'm better on my own
And it's too late, for palm trees and I don't care

Pounded lines come into my mind, why am I here? what could I possibly need from You?
I've got it all (I've got it all)

Feeling like I might need You am I better on my own?
Is it too late for palm trees?
I'm starting to care

Ahhhhhhhhh!!!!

Feeling how much I need You
am I better on my own?
Is it too late for palm trees?
I'm sorry
Feeling how much I need You no way I'm better on my own it's not too late for palm trees,
I'm sorry
