This must be a dream;
This cannot be happening.
Your love is amazing, I know.
Your strength is amazing, I know.

(Chorus)

Someday you will take my hand;
One of these days they will understand.
This love you've put inside of all our hearts
Will spread across this land like wildfire.

Your might will guide us all
Through all of our darkest days.
Your strength will save us all
When we are ??
Though the strong may fall,
Worthy are the meek.

(Chorus 2x)
