A thousand eyes stare upon us seems to burn into my body,
See my hands before me they look like yours you think it's over,
Make way, my only enemy. Face this, it's inside of me Oh
this war won't end today, as it looks my way!!!
I discovered if i get out alive you know that i could deny you and disappear again in time Even if you get the feeling that i could be here to rely on i
disappear again in time

The blood stains on the table paint a picture remind Take the monster from the man he's got to be insane
Chasing the memory away, Addicted to this love hate, Loading me again like a bullet with my name, I'll be fine there's no long goodbyes

you
and disappear again in time Even if you get the feeling that i could be here to rely on i disappear again in time

I know that you'll survive but i'm the place you choose to hide

(2x)

I discovered if i get out alive you know that i could deny
you
on
