I love you
You know that I'll do
What can I do to find the truth.
You know I love you
Forever and ever,
We'll be together
And I'll do it all
Just for you

From the first time I saw you, u had my heart.
I didn't know how to talk to you, I didn't know how to start.
2 weeks later I saw you again,
My heart was beating faster it was adrenalin.
Your eyes, your smile, and your beautiful face,
You caught me in the act
And I thought I lost the way.
Let me tell you that I'm shivering inside,
I wanna hold you hand,
I wanna hold u tight

Please stay with me, my love so deep, what can i do to be with you?

I love you
You know that I'll do
What can I do to find the truth.
You know I love you
Forever and ever,
We'll be together

And I'll do it all
Just for you

Sitting in the room , waiting by my phone.
Driving on the tour bus, cant wait to come home
Miles and miles between the two of us.
I need you girl or my heart will bust.
I know it's hard for you when I'm far away.
But every single hour and every single day
I think of you in a special way.
I love you girl in my heart just stay please be with me, my love so deep , what can i do to be with you?

I love you
You know that I'll do
What can I do to find the truth.
You know I love you
Forever and ever,
We'll be together
And I'll do it all
Just for you

This goes out to all the lovers outside.
If you once find the right person, never let her go away
