Well, I've longed so long for
What a long time to wait
For at last, my long lost friend

How I've often wondered
Somehow, some way
Do you think of me at all?

Do you know how long I wondered, oh, how long
Where you were and how you been?
Do you know how long I've wondered

When it was that you might come around here?

It was a long time ago
Who knows how long
That time is over

Run around all night and
No cares but how we've been
But that was yesterday

Do you know how long I've wondered
Where you were, when did I see you at all?
Now I can't keep on walking, I must lay down
