another lonely night at home track of time completely gone still the end is very near i'm gonna get right out of here things won't seem so dumb when i stop feeling numb i'm marching with one goal all for one and beer for all out of my way, i am going to the party no i won't stay at home out of my way cause i'm going to the party i'm gonna party all night long party on, party on, party on,

party on, party on, party on,
beer and whiskey all night long,
party on, party on, party on

when the sun starts a new day all the vampires hide away unstable and shaking hands, i'm gonna make a stand just listen and hear me out don't do it out of pride drugs, girls or lemonade, beer is my partydate

out of my way, i am going to the party
out of my way cause i'm going to the party

party on [x4]
