As the flowers sleep
This evening they were all closed
So very perfectly
Symmetrical in the way of their love

Too sad, overdosed
The children are running to find
For they want to see things differently
Than before us

So full of our convictions
In a World of discord
I'll be by your side
I don't want you to try
Walking alone, all by yourself
Remember that our dreams are deep in my eyes. ???

And free from shadows
Shadows that try to conform
Does your spirit know that
They try to stand up
Close to breaking cries
Now that I dream back again. ??
And he feels the Love...
That leaves us standing there...

So full of our conviction.
In a World of discord
I'll be by your side
I don't want you to cry
Walking alone, all by yourself
Remember that our dreams are deep in our head.
I'll be by your side
I don't want us to die
Walking alone, all by yourself
Forever these dreams are deep my eye.
Oh oh oh...
Go!

As he crosses the wall to the other side
The children are running to find

But I'm trying to see things differently
The fuckers

So look them in the eye...
Say now don't fuck with me...
All I got are these dreams.
And they're going to set me free
So look them in the eye
Say, don't you fuck with me
All I got are these dreams...
And they're going to set me free...
Set me free...
Set me free...
Free... Free!

I will be by your side
I don't want you to cry
Walking alone, all by yourself
Remember that our dreams are deep in my eye
I'll be by your side
I don't want us to die
Walking alone, all by yourself
Forever these dreams are deep in my eye
So full of conviction x 4

This World of discord.
