Thanks Parris.

Immerse yourself in this moment Think about our rebirth

Lets get connected Lets get united Lets run away out of these vows of these men of structure

Whoa I wanna get connected So we can get electric Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture

Oh oh Here comes the rebirth

Pushing outwards From our swollen hearts It's time to fuse ourselves when love set free loves burning spirit

'cause everyone seems Cold and emotionless I can smell the hunger, taste the angry air who resurrects this

This this is tha Rebirth

You'll find a place where You'll beholden to no one Except yourself so let them come and see ya standing naked

Full of passion Flowing inside out Into creation becoming one with present

So go get connected Unshackled essence Lets fuck away morality, you might be independent Oh I wanna get connected So we can get electric Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture Oh oh

Before we die

Before we die

Before I die

Before I die

Before I die

Lets get connected

Lets get united

Lets run away to accept that we all are different

I wanna get connected

So we can get electric

Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture

Before we die

Before we die

Before I die

'cause

This
