Thanks Parris.

Immerse yourself in this moment Think about our rebirth

Lets get connected Lets get united Lets run away out of these vows of these men of structure

Whoa I wanna get connected So we can get electric Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture

Oh oh Here comes the rebirth

Pushing outwards From our swollen hearts It's time to fuse ourselves when love set free loves burning spirit

Cuz everyone seems
Cold and emotionless
I can smell the hunger, taste the angry air who resurrects this

This this is tha Rebirth

You'll find a place where You'll beholden to no one Except yourself so let them come and see ya standing naked

Full of passion

Flowing inside out Into creation becoming one with present

So go get connected Unshackled essence Lets fuck away morality, you might be independent

Oh I wanna get connected So we can get electric Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture Oh oh

Immerse yourself in this moment Think about our rebirth

Before we die Before we die Before I die Before I die Before I die

Lets get connected
Lets get united
Lets run away to accept that we all are different
I wanna get connected
So we can get electric
Then we'll set our souls free dancing into rapture

Before we die Before we die Before I die

Cuz this is the rebirth
