All my life I never wanted to cause pain
To anyone's heart but these words are in vain
She's grown as angry as a furious night sky
So gather children and prepare me for the sacrifice
A soul that's full of hate requires retribution
What happened to love's flash evolution?
See me standing naked in a pool of my blood
Prepare yourselves as the tears gather for the flood
But don't you wonder if I love her
Don't you wonder if I love her
Don't you ever think they did care
Oh welcome to love core
Now my friend all these thoughts that travel through my mind
Guilty killed so are you ready to die?
We are forever walking nearest the flood we despise
Now I feel like the fucker who ruined her life
Feels like that there is rusting in the way of love
Love's redemption can't defy the ocean
Sometimes it seems like a little bliss is full of loss
Gather children come and carry me to the cross
But don't you wonder, if I love her?
Don't you ever, think I cared?
RESPECT!
Don't you wonder if I love her?
Don't you ever think they did care?
Oh welcome to love core x2
Another salt in her hand
When she peels off my skin
Oh welcome to love core
All my life I never wanted to cause pain
Anyone's heart but these words are in vain
She's grown as angry as a furious night sky
So gather children and prepare me for the sacrifice
A soul that's full of hate requires retribution
What happened to love's flash evolution?
See me standing naked in a pool of my blood
Prepare yourselves as the tears gather for the flood
And don't you wonder if I love her
Don't you ever think they did care
Oh welcome to love core

Don't you wonder if I love her
Don't you ever think they did care
Oh welcome to Love core!!! x4
