This goes out to all my peoples in the city
Making ends meet, getting by Thinking 'bout the hustle, everybody struggles for the answer
Confusion will attack in a cold blooded manner

But cancer kills my society, no need to lie to me
Real people fighting always try to be Correct with the mental and upright with the info
Catching hell, paying dues but could it be so simple?

The dark cold planet, you can't take the drama
Don't worry, underprivileged got the bullet proof armor
Surviving's just a job as they dodge caps daily
People goin' crazy, everyone who raised me

Thanks to my moms, and thanks to my pops
And thanks to the youth rowdy on the roof top
Who warned me of trouble so son, get the bonus
I dedicate this to those who kept me focused

To my brother Big E, yo rest in peace
To the dead money makers, rest in peace
To my little cousin Shawn, rest in peace
To the slang gang bangers, rest in peace

(Dedicated, dedicated, dedicated)
I've got to live, kid

This goes out to all my peoples locked down
And waiting for the days to see the sun and the clouds
The stormy weather came, of course, we ignored it
Praying for parole in prison, see the warden

Release from the pen, 8 to 10 on your feet

You're working, building, staying strong, watch the heat
Deceit lies snitching, you became a victim
The bitch sewed you quick on the phone in the kitchen

Nightmares and troubles, remembering the vision
Times is frustrating when nobody listens
Is this because they forget and regret
To acknowledge one another? But all do respect
To the veterans, experts, inmates in the cell
Keep your eyes on the prize, see you soon wish you well

To my brothers doing life, rest in peace
To my man on this disc, rest in peace
To my brother Carl Capone, rest in peace
To all the lost souls, rest in peace
