Look at all the politicians everyone is telling lies always making promises which never will be fulfilled

changing the point of view
promising a better nation
this is nothing new
just a cosmetic alteration

you can look to the left you can look to the right in the end there's no difference who has the power

just a cosmetic alteration

changing...

always in search of skeletons to hide their own faults there is no more time left to do their real work

try to avoiding radicals they are so narrow-minded they only fight for their aim don't take care of other things

changing...
