[Intro]

I thought you were a nice girl
I was your Best friend
And i had to let you go one day
And that day came

I never thought i would say this but it struck me like lightning
I felt if i was never gonna forget it
Its like a scar in my heart
I love you so much that
I cant live without u
I cant live without u Girl

[chorus]

I spent my half life time
Thinking that you may not have feelings for me
So respected your feeling and wanted to be
A good Guy
It never Ended
I knew you Since i was 7
For all these days it never faded from heart
I guess this started and it would never end.
So far in my life i thought about you
And i think i would never forget you

I never thought i would say this but it struck me like
lightning
I felt if i was never gonna forget you
Its like a scar in my heart
I love you so much that
I cant live without u
I cant live without u Girl

I think i be hoping for rest of my life for that day
When you hold my hand
And whisper in my ears that your my soul mate
And If you say it it will echo in my ears for a 1000 years
And i will regret and suffer a million years [outro]

I thought you were a nice girl
I was your Best friend
And i had to let you go one
And that day came

I never thought i would say this but it struck me like
lightning
I felt if i was never gonna forget it
Its like a scar in my heart
I love you so much that
I cant live without u
I cant live without u Girl
