The powers of destruction fill my thoughts
Pure rage as yet unforeseen
Once my mind is at it's death
My reign shall forever be

Victory - my soul has been destroyed
Slaughter - of the countless hordes
War - unites the strong to rise
Torture - pure evil has been renewed

My form's an untamed beast
Roaming a land for which I do not care
This existence is incomplete
Until I taste the wines of their defeat

Pain - I no longer can withstand
Blood - I taste upon my lips
Death - unto the shapes of flesh
Hate - is what I possess
