Stereo-Typical, Run-a-the-mill-sickle
Human being on the scene
Supersi-i-ized, Deep Fri-i-ide
Sucker punch & left to die
Where have you been today
How will you find your way
Running away on Carlito's sleigh
Sloping to the incline, Fast forward rewind
Bound & gagged by hooks & lines

Capsized & left to die, Praying for just one more night
Crucified, by your lies, Begging for another high

Unobstructed sight-line, Reinforcing hind-sight
Still can't rise or open my eyes
Let me ask of you, for a favor, maybe two
Drop the pride and keep on pushing through
Up and then down tonight, always putting up a fight
Never letting go of the good old retro
Everything's coming back, Building up by the stack
These are the lies & also the facts

Capsized & left to die, Praying for just one more night
Crucified, by your lies, Begging for another high

Capsized & left to die, Praying for just one more night
Crucified, by your lies, Begging for another high
