I found it
I hated it
I wrote it down
To tell you later
I lost it
This feeling
I wrote upon that piece of paper
I fell it
I loved it
I whispered it
I was elated
You talked and
You missed it
You idiot
You think i hate it
Well come and play in my boiler room
Turn the heat up and
Make you feel like i do
I'll make you feel like i do
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
Has everything i need to feel
My boiler room
Has everything to need to make me feel better
My boiler room
I found it
It hurt me
I wrote a song
To make you sorry
You loved it
This song now
You've gone and missed the point completely
Come and play in my boiler room

I'll turn the heat up and make me feel like i do
Make you feel like i do
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
Has everything i need to feel
My boiler room

Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
I found it
I loved it
I wrote it
I lost it
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
Has everything i need to feel
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
Has everything i need to feel
My boiler room
Has everything i need to make me feel better
My boiler room
My boiler room
My boiler room
