"Short Way To Fall"

Youve been gathering sweet chocolate buttons
Saving them up for a joke
Youve been hoarding them under your pillow
In a wine bottle, empty and broke
You can smile with the liars and losers
Whether you find it funny or not
You can laugh at the blind and the broken
With all of the colours youve got
So you drop this candy coated rage
Through the neck of the bottle
Its a short way to fall, to the top
I caught you counting the hurt in the sunshine

Look how the colours they sing
Its hard not to hide them
To revel in selfness
When hurt is a beautiful thing
So you drop this candy coated rage
Through the neck of the bottle
Its a short way to fall, to the top
You can laugh at the hapless and hopeless
Look how you're laughing at me
Ive been dying to shatter your bottle
And it's a short way to fall
Its a short way to fall to the top
