Happy new year little boy (?)
This day finds you deep inside
Someone you want
All your precious joys
This here finds you deep inside
Someone you want
I've been working it all out
In my head
So that you can find someone
You really want
Happy new day little boy (?)
This here finds you holding on
To someone you want
I deny your joy
This day finds you holding on
To the one you want
I've been living it over
In my head
So that you can find someone
You really want
Happy new year little boys
This day finds you deep inside

Someone you want
All your precious joys
This here finds you holding on
To someone you want
I've been working it all out
In my head
So that you can find
I've been living it over
In my head
So that you can find
I've been working it over
In my head
So that you can trust me now
I've been working it all out
In my head
So that you can leave me here, alone
I've been working it all out
In my head
So that you can find

Someone... you want
Someone... you really need
So that you can find the one
You really want
