you walk, you talk
you breathe, you sing you cry, but i could never bring myself to try and make it easy on you
better for you

you hurt, you laugh
you leave, you lie
you crawl, but i could never try to find a way to make it easy on you

you always come around
you're falling down and trying to let it go
you only hang around
to fall me down
but i could never try
to make it easier on you

you hurt, you beg,
you breathe, you laugh
you cry, but it is not enough for me to want to take it easy on you

you beg, you crawl
you sleep, you run

you stall, when i have just begun to find a way to make it easy on you
better for you

you only hang around
to fall me down
to make it easier on you

you fall me down
follow me down
you only had to make it round follow it through so you can hide

and i try.... i try....

you're falling down and try to let it go
you only hang around

to make it easier on easier on... you
