We looked our best today
Forgotten dreams about you
The sun looks new without you
It's come of age today
Let's sell our lies to shame
To keep our secrets safe
Let's fall in love with strangers
Reincarnate in changes

We looked our best today
Remember how we started
Naive and brokenhearted
We watched the violet fade
We looked our best today
And gave it all away
The days are breaking slower
I'll meet you when they're over
