"Thrive On War"

Arise in black, surprise attack!

Forgo the ritual of the dark taking back!

Their rightfull throne, return to home

Forever, left in debt be the legions that fail!

Defiant!

Hell Guide us!

Where all else fail we'll triumph

Just like one thousand times before

We thrive on... war!

A final plea from the heavens

Invokes destruction of the third degree.

A final swoop, a lunge for certain victory.

Scream now or forever hold your peace!
