Watch somebody fall from grace
When there's nobody there to take their place
You can't help but feel alone

They left you to your own device
There was nobody to tell you to think twice
You can't help but feel alone

All the times we were losing sight
There's no tunnel, there's no light at all
It could be someone you know

The times we felt all the pain was real
We couldn't help the way we feel, come on
This could be someone you know

This life keeps coming
This life keeps coming on and on
This life keeps coming
This life it keeps coming on and on

Take my soul I'm, take my soul I'm
Break my heart I'm ready, ready, ready, when you are Take my soul I'm, break my heart I'm ready, ready, ready

You watch somebody turn away
You've wanted all of your life to see one day
You can't help but feel alone

An' all the times we were losing sight
There's no shadows, there's no light, come on
This could be someone you know

This life keeps coming
This life keeps coming on and on
This life keeps coming
This life it keeps coming on and on

Take my soul I'm, take my soul I'm
Break my heart I'm ready, ready, ready, when you are Take my soul I'm, break my heart I'm ready, ready, ready when you are Ready, ready, ready when you are
