Way down deep inside
Order inspires disorder
Constants divide along a sharp line

Way down deep inside
Way down deep inside
The will is strong the blood is rising

And it's coming in waves
So be careful to know the lines
And to keep distance far from the other side

Time's unabated
Lie down or learn to trust the
Wave after wave
Crash, crash all around us
How could we leave well enough alone

Way down deep inside
The pain's an awful truth to
Override and subdivide and
Make something that you can use

Oh the weight of it will wear you down
Way down deep inside
It's a long dark fall through a long dark night

Time's unabated
Stand up or learn to take it
'Cause it well could be the last time you will feel the

Wave after wave
Crash, crash all around us
How could we survive it on our own

Wave's pound the wave
Crash, crash all around us
How could we leave well enough alone
Well enough alone, well enough alone

I can't leave well enough alone (well enough alone)

I can't leave well enough alone (well enough alone)

Time's unabated
Stand up or learn to take it
'Cause it well could be the last time you will feel the

Wave after wave
Crash crash come between us
How could we survive it all on our own

Crash crash come between us
How could we survive it all on our own

Way down deep inside
Order inspires disorder
Way down deep inside
Way down deep inside
