The best things in life are
Gazed at the carpet of stars
Trig question and you knew it
Blockade you runs right through it

The best things in life have
Qualities like when we laugh
Half joy half happiness
That's second right before you first kiss

The best things in life look
Like the first time the blind have site
Late for a flight, just one of those days
Get to the game, thank God it's delayed

The best things in life hurt
Suffering and overwhelmed with work
Your social life is starting to fade
But in the end A+ is the grade

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right

The best things is life feel
Safe, secure, and surely ideal
Winning an unreal amount of money
The jokes on you when no one found it funny

The best things in life scare
You to death when your life is spared
When someone cares and you don't deserve it
Somehow your bad timings perfect

The best things in life please
You make a point, everyone agrees
Breeze that brushes, 8th grade crushes
Standing without crutches, dutches

So touching, no rushing
Or crunching, you've got the time
Intervention could be divine
If you like this song then press rewind

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right
The best angle, that's right

(The best angle, that's right)
The best things are the subtleties
(The best angle, that's right)
In small degrees that we don't see
(The best angle, that's right)
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree
(The best angle, that's right)

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree

The best things are the subtleties
In small degrees that we don't see
Gracing our presence so perfectly
Just possibly you may agree
