I am deliriously cold hearted
Maybe I mean cold emotion
A lead(?) carrying a tote bag
And letting my hope drag in a trail behind me

Wow!
This is the mess big travelling and I don't mean to be unraveling
My ball of thumbs all over your leaning shoulder
Wow!
Deliriously Colder
Wow!
Why does Philosophy eat Pillosophy? And I'll stop the beat, have a talk with me.
Hey!
I probably have a lot to see (Wow!) and nothing to say
(Now!) in a regular way (Hey!).
But that's just enough about me, let's talk about me,
Hanging out with a girl named Sally (speaking of)
But mind gloves (????) a party of one.
At least I'm stable without any fun, like running in circles, or running in squares,
Or visiting twin hurts for green is blue, but who cares?
Now I said the simple sentence, which in a sense is saying "Pop rock is not dead."

I am deliriously cold hearted
Maybe I mean cold emotion x3
(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious,
it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)

Though skies unlimited, they got used up.
He's heard guiney pig, must be true love.
And oh, sure, I know you're so hardcore.
Involved in all of the social lightweights
Good flight rates, to find dates, fifty states, which prehates many breaks

and heart stakes, double take might remake a marriage great

Wow!
Spontaneous to fake you (Out!)
Here you should take he, or her (Out!)
And discuss why there is no (Us!)
And shoot the breeze while there's no (We!)
You will see thrills in our fantasies, but too much time
kills in La La Land
In demand of supplies, independent without no good bye (Why bother?)

I am deliriously cold hearted
Maybe I mean cold emotion x3
(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious,
it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)

I can see through, or want to stop
I got to hand down some strange genes down to my handsome son, or lovely daughter
Who are at this time just a thought in the back of my mind, to ought not, or yet
The thought's unstoppable, probable, profitable
In every way except my pocket book Bearable, abominable, comical, possible cause is jellyfish, landom (?)
Pandemonium only ----- (?) is seen as just for your enjoyment
Furthermore is for my enjoyment
Furthermore is for your enjoyment

I am deliriously cold hearted
Maybe I mean cold emotion x3
(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious,
it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)
