

Fury In The Slaughterhouse "Creep No. 2"

How can you look into her eyes while you fuck her
She was so innocent before, before you touched her
Now everything is upside down
In her tears you drown
Her little soul is crying
While you keep on lying

Don't try to tell that you speak the truth
Cause she already knows that you're a creep

Go with the flow (let yourself go)
Is this stupidity you say
Hoping it takes her fear away

And makes her willing to stay
You know she will cry
When the door is closing
Right behind you
And the new
Will definitely happen without you
