Faces hide under a sheet
Crosses burn harmony weeps
Nazi eye hail the beast
They want war they don't want peace
In their minds hatred runs deep
Their mission is world mastery
To divide the land of the free
With desires to bring back the chains
And destroy the home of the brave
It's the great southern conspiracy!
South will never rise to supremacy
We'll take these rednecks and lynch them from a tree
South will never rise as long as freedom rings
The rebel flag will fall and we won't
Whistle dixie yankee doodle sytle
Why can't see, why can't they feel
One love, one love, one love for all one love, one love

Why can't they see, why can't they feel

One world, one world, one world for all one world, one world

For one nation under god 5x
