Come on spin the bottle

Let it turn

And if it points to you

I'll make you burn

Spin the bottle

Let it turn

And if it's points to me

I'll promise you nothing comes for free

This is a one way dead end street

The only place where we will meet

We're on a one way dead end street

All alone and no way home all chances blown

For you and me

Let's drink another

Or what it takes

To help me cover all of your fakes

So that no one sees how desperate we are

Far out heading one way to the stars

This is the one way dead end street

The only place where we will meet

We're on a one way dead end street

All alone and no way home all chances blown

For you and me

This is the one way dead end street

The only place where we will meet

We're on a one way dead end street

All alone and no way home all chances blown

All alone and no way home all chances blown

This is the one way dead end street

The only place where we will meet

We're on a one way dead end street

All alone and no way home all chances blown

This is the one way dead end street

The only place where we will meet

We're on a one way dead end street

All alone and no way home all chances blown

This is a one way

This is a one way

This is a one way

For you and me
