Revelation

This is the time for revelation
You can't impress me with your education
Cause what I want from you is not your head
But I tell you what to do with it before we go to bed

And that is:
Throw it away
Revelation

You've got a boyfriend with long black hair
I tell you what baby I don't care
You took my finger so test the rest
Compare me to your "heinz" and then
Tell me who's best, and

Throw him away...
Revelation

This is the time for revelation
So let down your pants

She believes in a God above
She says the Bible is the book of love
She says: take me in your arms
And I'll tell you what I'll do
I love you tonight and then I'll kick you, and:

Throw you away...
