"My Everything"

Here in this room,
Here in this quiet place
It's all about you
And nothing else matters
Here in my heart,
In this open space
I've let down my guard,
I want to worship You

You are the center of my life
You are the wings by which I fly
You are the melody I sing
You are my everything
You are the smile upon my face
You are the one and only way
You are the reason that I dream
You are my everything

Here in my mind,
In my inner self
I pray that You'll find
Pleasing thoughts
Here in my soul,
In my spirit, Lord
I wanna let go and
Give You all the praise
I lift my head up
And open my eyes
I'm longing to see You Lord
I'm needing to see You Lord
I raise my hands up
As high as they'll go
I'm wanting to touch You Lord
I'm needing to touch You Lord
