I'm so stripped down and naked
Feed me with change
Love me numb
So I can heal your pain

Make me wake up early
Yea, I'll drive home so far away
Skip school and sleep in my car
Turn on the heat and melt the snow away

Is there still time for love
Is there still time for love, yea

I'll forgive and forget, yea
I won't regret a thing
But my pride and anger
It's a danger I can't heal

Now I'm looking out the front door window
To my teen hood house of chains
Seems like everyone's pretending to know the key
To something for somewhere they've never been

In this road never ending
I'm ending [Incomprehensible]
Let's go there
Still some time for me and you

Is there still time for love
Is there still time for love, yea

I'll forgive and forget, yea
I won't regret a thing
But my pride and anger
It's a danger I can't heal

Mom's in the hospital
She's sick and under nourished
But anything is possible
She says violets always flourish

My fathers so afraid

The child inside he's lost
So how much will he pay
For all the pain he's caused

I saw him smiling, laughing
So betrayed and lost when I found them
Let's celebrate it
No matter how much it costs

Is there still time for love
Is there still time for love, yea

I'll forgive and forget, yea
I won't regret a thing
But my pride and anger
It's a danger I can't

Now's never too late, no
We don't have to wait
Now is forever
We are always free, yea

Now's never too late, no
No, we don't have to wait
Now is forever
